Gareth G Morgan PhD AWS FAIA(Acad) FBCS MInstF(Dip) FCIE works with a wide range of charities as the senior partner of The Kubernesis Partnership LLP – a small firm of charity consultants based in Yorkshire, England and East Lothian, Scotland. He is also Emeritus Professor of Charity Studies at Sheffield Hallam University where he led teaching and research on charity structures and regulation.

He has long been an advocate for CIOs, and in this book he has delved into the legislation and regulations to produce an easily-understandable book on the realities of setting up a CIO, running a CIO, or converting existing charities – yet with extensive detail and legal footnotes throughout for those who need to understand the reasoning.

The book covers CIOs throughout the UK: CIOs in England and Wales, SCIOs (Scottish CIOs) and Northern Irish CIOs (when implemented) – analysing constitutions, conversions and legislation in each jurisdiction.
